MINUTES.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in the United States of America, met agreeably to appointment, in the Seventh Presbyterian Church, in the City of Philadelphia, on Thursday, the 17th day of May, A. D. 1838, at 11 o'clock, A. M.; and was opened with a sermon by the Rev. David Elliott, D. D., the Moderator of the last Assembly, from Isaiah, 60, 1. "Arise, shine, for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee."

After the sermon, the Moderator gave notice that as soon as the benediction was pronounced, he would take the chair, and proceed to the organization of the Assembly. The benediction being pronounced, the Moderator took the chair, and having opened the meeting with prayer, called upon the Permanent Clerk to report the roll.

The Rev. William Patton, a member of the Third Presbytery of New York, rose, and asked leave to offer certain resolutions which he held in his hand.

The Moderator declared the request at that time to be out of order, as the first business was the report of the Clerks.*

Dr. Patton appealed from the decision. The Moderator declared the appeal, for the reason already stated, to be at that time out of order. Dr. Patton stated that the resolutions related to the formation of the roll, and began to read the same: but being called to order, took his seat.

The Committee of Commissions further reported that the Rev. Robert G. Thompson, of the Presbytery of Bedford; Rev. Adam Millar, of the Presbytery of Montrose; and Mr. James Elliott, a ruling elder of the Presbytery of Richland, have stated to the committee that they were appointed by their respective Presbyteries, but have not their commissions; that the commission of Mr. John W. Cunningham, a ruling elder from the Presbytery of New Castle, wants the signature of the Moderator; and that the commission of Rev. Ephraim P. Bradford, of the Presbytery of Londonderry, wants the signature of the Clerk.

They further reported that the Rev. David R. Preston, and Mr. Thomas Beard, a ruling elder, appeared before the committee with regular commissions from the Presbytery of Greenbrier, which commissions were accompanied with an attested extract from the minutes of the Synod of Virginia, certifying that said Presbytery was regularly constituted by the Synod of Virginia, October 10th, 1837.

The documents referred to in the foregoing report of the informal cases, were laid on the table by the Permanent Clerk.

After the report of the Committee of Commissions had been read, the Moderator stated that the Commissioners whose commissions had been examined, and whose names had been enrolled, were to be considered as members of this Assembly;* and added that if there were any Commissioners present from the Presbyteries belonging to the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, whose names had not been enrolled, then was the time for presenting their commissions.

Dr. Mason rose, as he said, to offer a resolution to "complete the roll," by adding the names of certain Commissioners who, he said, had offered their commissions to the Clerks, and had been by them refused. The Moderator inquired if they were from Presbyteries belonging to the Assembly, at the close of the sessions of last year? Dr. Mason replied that they were from Presbyteries belonging to the Synods of Utica, Geneva, Genesee, and the Western Reserve. The Moderator then stated that the motion was out of order at this time. Dr. Mason appealed from the decision of the Moderator; which appeal, also, the Moderator declared to be out of order, and repeated the call for commissions from Presbyteries in connexion with the Assembly.

The Rev. Miles P. Squier, a member of the Presbytery of Geneva, then rose and stated that he had a commission from the Presbytery of Geneva, which he had presented to the Clerks, who refused to receive it, and that he now offered it to the Assembly, and claimed his right to his seat. The Moderator inquired if the Presbytery of Geneva was within the bounds of the Synod of Geneva. Mr. Squier replied that it was. The Moderator said: "then we do not know you, sir," and declared the application out of order. Mr. Cleaveland then rose and began to read a paper, the purport of which was not heard, when the Moderator called him to order. Mr. Cleaveland, however, notwithstanding the call to order was repeated by the Moderator, persisted in the reading. During which, the Rev. Joshua Moore, from the Presbytery of Huntingdon, presented a commission, which being examined by the Committee of Commissions, Mr. Moore was enrolled, and took his seat.

It was then moved to appoint a Committee of Elections to which the informal commissions might be referred. But the reading by Mr. Cleaveland still continuing, and the Moderator having in vain again called to order, took his seat, and the residue of the Assembly remaining silent, the business was suspended during the short but painful scene of confusion and disorder which ensued. After which, and the actors therein having left the house, the Assembly resumed its business.

On motion,

The cases of Messrs. Thompson, Millar, Elliott, Cunningham, Bradford, Preston, and Beard, and the documents concerning them, were referred to Messrs. Culbertson, J. L. R. Davies, and Hugh Campbell, as a Committee of Elections.

The Rev. William S. Plumer was unanimously elected Moderator; and the Rev. Elias W. Crane was unanimously elected Temporary Clerk.

The Committee of Elections reported that the following persons, whose cases had been submitted to them, were regularly appointed Commissioners to this Assembly, and recommended that they be severally admitted to seats, viz. Rev. Robert G. Thompson, of the Presbytery of Bedford; Mr. James Elliott, ruling elder of the Presbytery of Richland; Mr. John W. Cunningham, ruling elder of the Presbytery of New Castle; the Rev. Ephraim P. Bradford, and Rev. David R. Preston, and Mr. Thomas Beard, ruling elder, from the Presbytery of Greenbrier; they further reported that the Rev. Adam Millar, of the Presbytery of Montrose, did not appear before the committee.

The case of the Commissioners from the Presbytery of Greenbrier was referred back to the Committee of Elections, and that part of their report relative to Messrs. Thompson, Elliott, Cunningham, and Bradford was adopted, and it was ordered that their names be inserted in the roll. These Commissioners took their seats.

And then the Assembly adjourned till this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read.

The Committee of Elections reported that the Presbytery of Greenbrier was formed by dividing the Presbytery of Lexington (as will appear by reference to the certificate of the Stated Clerk of the Synod,) by the Synod of Virginia, at its sessions in Lexington, in October, 1837, and that the committee have received such information as satisfies them of the necessity and propriety of the formation of the Presbytery of Greenbrier, and they recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the General Assembly earnestly recommend it to all the congregations under their supervision, that in resorting to the legislatures or tribunals of our country, they use the utmost care to ask nothing, which, if granted, will in any respect contravene the principles or order of our Church; and in any cases in which civil enactments, heretofore obtained, do militate with any of the principles or order of our Church, they endeavour, as soon as possible, to obtain the repeal or modification of such enactments, so as to make them consistent with the ecclesiastical order and principles of the Presbyterian Church.

On motion, the preamble of the report was considered, amended, and agreed to; and

The report of the committee, as amended and agreed to, was adopted, as follows, viz.

The Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, finds itself, by the providence of God, in the course of new and unprecedented events, in a position of great difficulty, novelty, and importance. The Church, led and supported by the God of Zion, has within the last few years commenced a great reform which had become indispensable to its very existence, as organized on the principles of the doctrine and order of its own Constitution. The General Assembly of 1837, carried forward this reform in several measures of great and momentous importance, for the details of which we refer to its records. The voice of the Church, uttered in a multitude of forms, and especially by the Commissioners to the present General Assembly, is clearly and decisively in favour of consummating the reform thus auspiciously commenced.

But, a portion of the ministers and ruling elders sent to this Assembly, forgetting, or violating, as we apprehend, their duty to God and to the Church, and choosing to depart from us, have, in connexion with other persons not in the communion of our Church, constituted a new ecclesiastical organization, which they improperly and unjustly assume to call the true General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. To meet the present crisis at once, with the temper and spirit becoming our high vocation, and to preserve in it, and carry safely through it, the Church committed in so great a degree to our guidance, in times of so much trial and disorder, the three following Acts are now ordained and established, by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

ACT I.

Section 1. That in the present state of the Church, all the Presbyteries in our connexion ought to take order, and are hereby enjoined to take such order as is consistent with this minute, for the general reform and pacification of the Church; and they are directed so to do, some time between the dissolution of the present General Assembly and the fall meetings of the Synods, either at stated, or at pro re nata meetings of the Presbyteries, as shall seem most advisable to them respectively. And those Presbyteries whose Commissioners to this Assembly have united with others in the formation of another Assembly, in the presence of this, and with tumult and violence in open contempt of it: or who have advised the formation of said body, or adhered to, or attended it as members thereof, after its formation: or who, without taking any part therein, have, after its formation, renounced or refused to recognise this true and only General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, are hereby required to take proper order in regard to their said Commissioners.

Section 2. In case the majority of any Presbytery, whose Commissioners have acted as aforesaid, shall take proper order touching their conduct in the premises, and are willing, upon the basis of the Assemblies of 1837 and 1838, to adhere to the Presbyterian Church in the United States, then and in that case the acts of their said Commissioners, in advising, creating, or uniting with said Secession, or in refusing to attend on this Assembly, as the case may be, shall not prejudice the rights or interests, or affect the integrity of said Presbytery, or its union with the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, as an integral portion thereof.

Section 3. In case the majority of any Presbytery shall refuse or neglect to take proper order in regard to its seceding Commissioners, or shall approve their conduct, or adhere to the new sect they have created, or shall decline or fail to adhere to the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, upon the said basis of 1837 and 1838, for the reform of the Church, then and in that case the minority of said Presbytery shall be held and considered to be the true Presbytery, and shall continue the succession of the Presbytery by its name and style, and from the rendition of the erroneous and schismatical decision, which is the test in the case, be the Presbytery; and if sufficiently numerous to perform Presbyterial acts, shall go forward with all the proper acts and functions of the Presbytery.

Section 4. In case the minority of any Presbytery should be too small to constitute a Presbytery, and perform Presbyterial acts, said minority shall remain in its existing state until the next subsequent meeting of the Synod to which it properly belongs, which will then take order on the subject. Otherwise, there is a possibility that several Synods might be unable to constitute, if majorities of part of their Presbyteries should adhere to the secession, and the minorities attach themselves to other Presbyteries, or several unite into one, before the Synods meet.

Section 5. The principles of this Act shall be applied to churches, with their majorities and minorities—and to church sessions, as far as they are applicable. And the Presbyteries are hereby required so to exercise their watch and care, that as far as possible, all the churches may be preserved: and where, unhappily, this cannot be done, then that the minorities in the sessions and churches shall be cared for, and dealt with on the general principles now laid down.

The Assembly is fully sensible that in divided Presbyteries and Churches, every thing depends, under God, upon the promptitude, firmness, wisdom, and moderation of the friends of Christ, in this great crisis. In this conviction, the whole of that part of the subject which relates to churches and private Christians, is especially commended to the Christian zeal, prudence, and fidelity of the Presbyteries and church sessions. In regard to the temporal interests of the churches, and the difficulties which may arise on their account, the Assembly advise that, on the one hand, great liberality and generosity should mark the whole conduct of our people, and especially in cases where our majorities in the churches are very large, or our minorities are very small: while on the other hand, it would advise, that providential advantages, and important rights, ought not in any case to be lightly thrown away.

Section 6. It is enjoined on the Synods to take order on this subject—to see that the principles here laid down are duly enforced—to take care that the Presbyteries act as truth and duty require in the premises—to make such needful modifications in the Presbyteries as their altered circumstances may require—and to promote by all proper means the speedy pacification of the churches, by delivering and saving them from the leaven of heresy, disorder, and schism, which having so long worked among them, is at length ready, by God's mercy, to be purged away.

Section 7. The Synods in all cases shall be considered lawfully constituted only when formed by or out of those Presbyteries recognised as true Presbyteries by this Assembly, according to the true tenor and intent of this Act.

ACT II.

Whereas, the Act of the Assembly of June 5th, 1837, declaring the three Synods of Utica, Geneva, and Genesee, to be out of the ecclesiastical connexion of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, made ample provision for the return into the bosom of the Church of every minister and church, truly Presbyterian in doctrine and order, as well within the bounds of the three aforesaid Synods, as within those of the Synod of the Western Reserve:

And whereas, it is represented to this Assembly, that in addition to those who have embraced this invitation and provision of the aforesaid Act, there are others who have held back, and are still waiting on the developments of Providence:

And whereas, it was never the intention of the General Assembly to cause any sound Presbyterian to be permanently separated from our connexion, but it is, and always was the desire of the Church, that all who really embrace our doctrine, love our order, and are willing to conform to our discipline, should unite themselves with us:

And whereas, moreover, the General Assembly has no idea of narrowing, but would rather expand its geographical limits, so as to unite in bonds of the most intimate fellowship, every portion of our beloved country, and every evangelical Christian like minded with ourselves: It is therefore,

Resolved, By the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, that it be recommended,

1. That those ministers and churches living within the geographical limits of the Synods of the Western Reserve, Geneva, Utica, and Genesee, who are willing to adhere to the Presbyterian Church in the United States, on the basis of the Acts of the Assemblies of 1837 and 1838, for the general reform of the Church, take steps for the immediate organization of as many Presbyteries as there are ministers and churches, such as are above described, sufficiently numerous to constitute, so that the whole number of Presbyteries thus formed, shall not exceed one Presbytery for each of the aforenamed Synods: and so that, the territory of the Western Reserve shall in no case be added to that in western New York. And in case only two Presbyteries can be constituted on the ground occupied by the three Synods of Utica, Geneva, and Genesee—then that whole territory shall be divided between them. And in case but one Presbytery can be constituted, then, the whole territory shall attach to it. In regard to the Western Reserve, it is desired that a single Presbytery be formed as soon as convenient, to embrace the whole of that ground.

2. The ministers and churches intended by this Act, will hold such mutual correspondence as they shall deem needful, either by general meeting or otherwise; and then meet, at such convenient time and place, as may be agreed on by those who are to be embraced in the same Presbytery, and then and there constitute themselves in a regular, orderly, and Christian manner, into a Presbytery under the care of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

3. If as many as three Presbyteries can be conveniently formed in western New York, it will be orderly for them, as soon as possible thereafter, to unite and constitute themselves into a Synod upon the principles indicated in this Act; and such Synod, if formed, shall cover the entire territory heretofore occupied by the three Synods of Utica, Geneva, and Genesee. But in case only one or two Presbyteries can be formed, then application shall be made by it, or them, for admission under the care and into the bosom of such Synod now in our connexion, as shall be most convenient and natural. And the Presbytery on the Western Reserve, if one should be formed, will adopt the same line of conduct. And any Synod, to which application may be thus made by any Presbytery, shall take immediate order to accomplish the ends of this Act. And it is considered that any Presbytery or Synod formed in pursuance of these directions, shall have full power to perform all Presbyterial or Synodical acts, agreeably to the Constitution of the Church.

ACT III.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, that the Presbytery of Abingdon, now attached to the Synod of Tennessee, be, and hereby is, at its own request, detached from said Synod, and united to the Synod of Virginia, and it shall hereafter be an intregal part of said Synod of Virginia, and subject to its care and oversight.

Section 2. And whereas, it is known to the Assembly, that all the Commissioners who were present at its constitution from the Synods of Tennessee, Michigan, and Missouri, with the exception of the Commissioner from the Presbytery of Abingdon, have withdrawn from the House, and it is believed, have united in forming another body: Therefore,

Be it resolved, That if the Synod of Tennessee shall, either by its own act or the acts of its Presbyteries, adhere to the secession which has been made, or fail or refuse to adhere to the Presbyterian Church, as provided in the First Act; then the minority or minorities therein, adhering as aforesaid to the Presbyterian Church, shall be attached to, and shall be under the care of the Synod of West Tennessee, and may proceed, as before directed, in the First Act, and apply for admission to the Synod of West Tennessee, whose jurisdiction shall, in that case, be extended so as to include the ecclesiastical limits of the Synod of Tennessee: and if the like circumstances occur in respect of the Synod of Michigan, its minorities shall be under the care of the Synod of Cincinnati, on the same principles; and further, if the like circumstances occur with respect of the Synod of Missouri, its minorities shall be under the care of the Synod of Kentucky, on the same principles.

On motion,

Ordered, That the Stated Clerk send an attested copy of the foregoing Acts to the Stated Clerk of each Presbytery and Synod in connexion with the General Assembly.

That they have received for this object, through the year, the following sums, viz.

The Committee on Overture No. 10 made a report, which was accepted, amended, and adopted, and is as follows, viz.

Whereas, in the providence of God, a door is now opened for introducing into Texas the missionaries of the Cross, the "spiritual control of the Romish priesthood having ceased" there; and whereas, the eyes of that people are directed to Protestant churches in the United States, and their cry is, "come over and help us;" and whereas, many of the members of our churches are there as sheep without a shepherd, who with their fellow citizens earnestly petition for the ministrations of the sanctuary: Therefore,

Resolved, That the General Assembly strongly recommend to its Board of Missions the country of Texas, as a highly important field for their efforts, and that they adopt the earliest practicable measures to send forth into this inviting harvest efficient and devoted labourers.

On motion, the report of the Committee on Foreign Correspondence was taken up, amended, and adopted, as follows, viz.

That for the sake of greater convenience, it is expedient to maintain intercourse with the Congregational Union of England and Wales by written communication, and not by the appointment of delegates.

Of the particular cases submitted by the Presbyteries of New York and Philadelphia 2d, there can be but one opinion among those who desire to maintain a pure and kind relation between us and our Congregational brethren. In both cases, (viz. the receiving and licensing of a candidate of the Presbytery of New York, by the Western Association of New Haven County, and the continuance of a member of the Berkshire Association in one of the congregations of the 2d Presbytery of Philadelphia, after the Presbytery had decided that they could not receive him,) there was a plain departure from the design of the original agreement, and the express provisions of the stipulation of A. D. 1827.

On motion,

Ordered, That the Stated Clerk communicate a copy of the minute in the above case, to the General Association of Connecticut, and to the General Association of Massachusetts.

Resolved, That letters be addressed to the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, to the Synod of the Presbyterian Church of Canada, to the General Synod of Ulster, to the Presbyterian Synod of Ireland, to the General Synod of the United Secession Church of Scotland, and to the Congregational Union of England and Wales, in order to convey to said bodies a succinct, yet accurate account of the present state of our Church; and also, in the case of the Church of Scotland, to express our desire of opening with the General Assembly of that Church, a friendly and Christian correspondence.

Messrs. Maclean, Witherspoon, Patterson, William King, and J. Chamberlain, were appointed the committee.

With respect to the expediency of instituting an inquiry into the conduct of the American Board of Commissioners, in relation to the orthodoxy of missionaries employed by said Board, as suggested in a paper referred to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence, the committee reported, that they have no knowledge of any facts which render such inquiry at this time either necessary or expedient, and therefore recommended that this Assembly take no order on the subject. Accepted, and adopted.

On motion, the election of delegates to corresponding bodies was made the order of the day for 4 o'clock this afternoon. Nominations were made.

The House proceeded to the order of the day; when Mr. Packard, Agent, addressed the House in relation to the works published by the American Sunday School Union.

On motion, the report of the Committee on Overture No. 13 was taken up, and indefinitely postponed.

On motion, the report of the Committee on Overture No. 19 was adopted, as follows, viz.

Whereas, the General Assembly, in carrying forward the reform of the Church, should seek not only to remove existing evils, but to guard the Church, in all future time, as far as practicable, from their recurrence: and whereas, much of her security, under God, will depend upon the character of her rising ministry, who are to be her future pastors and rulers: and whereas, our Form of Government, Chap. XIV. Section 6, requires that candidates for the ministry, before they are licensed, "shall have studied divinity, under some approved divine or professor of theology," evidently meaning thereby such divine or professor of theology as is approved by the Presbyterian Church, in some of her regularly organized forms: therefore, in order to secure a ministry who shall be sound in the faith and well instructed in the doctrines, order, and discipline of the Church; and in order to the thorough instruction of the people in the cardinal doctrines and duties of our holy religion, it is Resolved, 1. That the Presbyteries be, and they hereby are enjoined, to see that their candidates for the ministry prosecute their studies only at such theological seminaries, or with such divines as are thus approved and recognised by the Presbyterian Church, as sound in the faith, and attached to our ecclesiastical order and forms of worship, as laid down in the accredited standards of our Church.

2. That it be recommended to all our ministers to give particular attention to such expository preaching as shall bring the great doctrines and duties of the gospel clearly before the minds of the people of their respective charges; and that they endeavour so to arrange this course of instructions, that all the various doctrines of the Bible, as set forth in order, in our Confession of Faith, shall be distinctly presented and enforced.

3. That the instruction of our youth in the Catechisms of the Church, be earnestly recommended to the special attention of all the ministers and sessions under the care of this General Assembly.

Mr. Breckinridge offered a resolution that the next Assembly meet in the city of New York, at some place to be designated by the Stated and Permanent Clerks. Laid on the table.

And then the Assembly adjourned till this afternoon at half past 3 o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

THURSDAY afternoon, half past 3 o'clock. The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

On motion of Dr. Baxter,

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk and Permanent Clerk be a committee to form the roll of the next General Assembly, and that said roll be formed according to the principles of Act the First on the State of the Church, viz. that the Commissioners from those Presbyteries whose Commissioners have aided or concurred in forming the secession from the present Assembly, shall not be enrolled until the Assembly has first been formed and has received a satisfactory report from the Presbyteries aforesaid, as to the order they have taken on the conduct of their Commissioners, and on their willingness to adhere to the constitutional order adopted and confirmed by the Assemblies of 1837 and 1838.

That the whole subject be dismissed with the consent of the complainants.

On motion of Mr. Breckinridge, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted, viz.

It having come to the knowledge of this Assembly, that the ministers and churches, formerly constituting the Third Presbytery of Philadelphia, have, with the exception of a single minister and church, failed or refused to obey the directions of the Act of the Assembly of 1837, which dissolved that Presbytery,

Be it resolved, 1. That all the ministers and churches formerly constituting said Presbytery, or being under its care, are hereby directed to comply with all the directions of said Act, at or before the fall meetings of the Presbyteries within whose bounds they are, or to which they most naturally belong.

2. In case of the failure or refusal of any of the said ministers or churches to comply with the directions now given them, then the Synod of Philadelphia shall take such order, as the peace of the churches and the rights of the minorities in them, shall seem to require; respect being had to the principles of the Acts passed for the pacification of the Church, during the sessions of the present Assembly.

On motion of Mr. Gray,

Resolved, 1. That in the judgment of this Assembly, the ministers who are located as foreign missionaries permanently out of the bounds of their respective Presbyteries, ought, where they are sufficiently numerous, and where they are so located as to render occasional intercourse possible, in all cases to organize themselves into Presbyteries, and gather the converts whom God may give them into Presbyterian churches, ordaining elders in them all.

2. The Synods are hereby enjoined to take the needful order on this important and interesting subject.

The Committee to whom was referred the account of Joseph Whetham, made a report, which was accepted and adopted, as follows, viz.

The Committee on the Narrative again reported, and their report was accepted, adopted, and ordered to be printed in the Appendix.

On motion of Dr. Green,

The resolution of Dr. Baxter, laid on the table yesterday, was taken up and postponed. A substitute was offered by Dr. Green, which was considered and adopted, as follows, viz.

Considering that it is manifestly incongruous and unreasonable that the government of the Presbyterian Church should be administered by those who do not submit to it for themselves; and whereas, there are, in this Church, certain brethren in the ministry, who, by taking the pastoral charge of Congregational churches, have placed themselves in a situation in which the government and order of the Presbyterian Church cannot, in the nature of things, be fully carried into effect, in relation either to themselves or to the people of whom they have the charge, this General Assembly feel it to be indispensable to declare that this is an evil which ought to be corrected as speedily as circumstances will permit: Therefore,

Resolved, That it be referred to the next General Assembly to correct the evil herein submitted, this General Assembly being willing that the interval of a year should be allowed to the parties concerned, to correct for themselves the evil in question, if such shall be their choice.

The Committee to inquire into the expediency of making arrangements for the purchase of the property belonging to the Seventh Presbyterian Church in this city, for the use of the General Assembly, made a report, recommending that Mr. Alexander Henry, Mr. Solomon Allen, Mr. Matthew Newkirk, Dr. Alexander W. Mitchell, Mr. Alexander Symington, and Mr. Joseph B. Mitchell, be a committee, empowered to purchase the said property in trust for the General Assembly, provided it can be done with advantage, and without involving the funds or responsibilities of the General Assembly.

On motion of Dr. Hoge,

Resolved, That if any Presbytery or Synod shall be formed according to the directions given by this Assembly, or being already formed, shall desire to be recognised as a constituent portion of the Presbyterian Church, all the proceedings in such case shall be fully reported to the next General Assembly, together with such evidence as the nature of the case shall require, and shall be approved before such body shall be finally received.

Mr. Breckinridge offered a series of resolutions in relation to suits that have been instituted or may be instituted against the officers or Trustees of this body. The resolutions were made the third order of the day for this afternoon.

And then the Assembly adjourned till this afternoon at half past 3 o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

FRIDAY afternoon, half past 3 o'clock. The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee to write a Pastoral Letter to the Foreign Missionaries under the care of the Assembly's Board, made a report, which was accepted, and adopted, and ordered to be printed in the Appendix.

On motion of Dr. Phillips,

Resolved, By the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America,

1. That we would acknowledge the favour of God, in permitting our beloved Church to engage in the work of Foreign Missions; and we would desire to have our own hearts and the hearts of all our people, constantly impressed with the solemn truth, that the conversion of the heathen to himself is God's work, and that every thing in relation to its beginning, its progress, and its completion, proceeds from him, and to him is due all the glory.

2. That for the salvation of the world, God employs the agency of his Church and people, and has united the means and the end together; and that he who disregards this arrangement, and withholds his aid and assistance, especially at such a time as this, fails in his duty to God and to the benighted heathen.

3. That it has always been the duty of the Church to make known the gospel to all the world; and in this day of light, with such facilities for this purpose, and so many calls and openings of Divine Providence, this duty is greatly increased; and no Church which neglects it can expect the blessing of God upon her interests.

4. That as the Presbyterian Church is engaged in this great work, and as the harvest is perishing for want of labourers, every member of the Church is called to increased exertion in behalf of our benighted fellow men.

5. That in view of all these considerations, it is the duty of the Presbyterian Church to provide the means necessary to send out and support every properly qualified foreign missionary that may be accepted by the Board; and the General Assembly would solemnly remind the members of the Church, that all are required, by the Word of God and their covenant engagements to him, according to their talents and means, to do what they are able, to promote the glory of God, by sending the knowledge of the glorious gospel to the benighted heathen.

6. That the preaching of the gospel by the living teacher, is the principal instituted means for the conversion of the souls of the perishing heathen; and in connexion with this is the great duty of training up a native ministry; and the General Assembly have seen with approbation the prominence given to their vital principles in the report of the Board.

7. That for the purpose of disseminating information in relation to Foreign Missions, it be recommended to the ministers and elders of the churches to make an effort to increase the circulation of the Foreign Missionary Chronicle.

8. That we regard with sincere interest, all the efforts of the different foreign missionary institutions, to make known the truth as it is in Jesus Christ to the heathen; and we recognise it as a duty binding upon all these institutions, to cultivate the best understanding with each other, in carrying forward the same great cause.

And on motion of Mr. Breckinridge,

Resolved, 9. That in view of the solemn principles and facts now declared, the General Assembly would urgently invoke all the ministers of the Presbyterian Church, and especially such as are not now laboriously engaged in the appropriate work of the gospel ministry, to come to the help of the Church, in the great work of converting the world.

The Assembly proceeded to the orders of the day; and Messrs. R. G. Thompson, Irwin, and I. N. Beach, were appointed a committee to receive and count the ballots for delegates to corresponding bodies; and Messrs. Sickles, Davidson, and Doby, were appointed a committee to receive and count the ballots for the Committee to revise the Assembly's Psalms and Hymns.

The resolutions offered this morning by Mr. Breckinridge were considered, and on motion of Mr. Vail, indefinitely postponed.

On motion of Mr. Hervey,

The appeal of Jacob Little and others against the Synod of Ohio, was taken up, and dismissed for want of prosecution.

The Committee to receive and count the ballots for delegates to corresponding bodies, reported, when it appeared that the following were elected, viz.

To the General Association of New Hampshire, Rev. Eli F. Cooley.

To the General Convention of Vermont, Rev. S. S. Davis.

To the General Association of Massachusetts, Rev. John H. Church, D. D.

To the General Association of Connecticut, Rev. Horace S. Pratt.

To the Evangelical Consociation of Rhode Island, Rev. Eliphalet Nott, D. D.

To the General Synod of the German Reformed Church, Rev. John M. Krebs.

To the General Synod of the Reformed Dutch Church, Rev. Archibald Alexander, D. D.

To the General Conference of Maine, Rev. N. H. Harding.

The Committee appointed to write letters to be addressed to foreign ecclesiastical bodies, reported, and their report was accepted, and adopted.

Ordered, That these letters be signed by the Moderator and Permanent Clerk, and respectively transmitted by the Stated Clerk to the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland; to the General Synod of the United Secession Church of Scotland; to the Presbyterian Synod of Ireland, distinguished by the name of Seceders; to the Congregational Union of England and Wales; and to the General Synod of Ulster.

The Committee to receive and count the ballots for the Committee to revise the Assembly's Psalms and Hymns, reported, when it appeared that the following persons were elected, viz. Rev. William W. Phillips, D. D., Rev. Robert J. Breckinridge, Rev. Archibald Alexander, D. D., Rev. James W. Alexander, and Rev. George A. Baxter, D. D.

On motion, Overture No. 15, on the Monthly Concert, was taken up, amended, and adopted, as follows, viz.

Whereas, it has appeared from the reports of the Church for many years that there has been a very lamentable neglect of the Monthy Concert for Prayer; and as there is reason to believe that this is owing partly to the time of its observation; and as there is a strong probability that a change might be made which would subserve the great interests involved; and whereas, it is the solemn and imperious duty of the Presbyterian Church, and especially at the present juncture, to promote with renewed vigour the kingdom of her Lord and Master, and for this purpose to avail herself of any facility in compassing her object: Therefore,

Resolved, That it be recommended, 1st. That the Monthly Concert be observed hereafter on the first Sabbath of every month; and,

2. That collections be taken up at the close of every Concert, in aid of the Foreign Missionary operations of our own Church.

On motion, the appeals of H. Bushnell, and of the Church of Newark, against the Synod of Ohio, were dismissed for want of prosecution.

Resolved, That the next General Assembly meet at Philadelphia, at such place as shall be designated by the Moderator and the Stated and Permanent Clerks, of which due notice shall be given.

Mr. Breckinridge, from the Committee on the State of the Church, made a final report, which was accepted, and referred to the next General Assembly; and the committee was discharged.

It was ordered that the report be entered on the minutes, as follows, viz.

MINUTE I.

The lateness of the session rendering it inconvenient and unsuitable for the important subject of abbreviated creeds, confessions, and church covenants, to be fully examined at this time,

Resolved, That the next Assembly be requested to decide,

1. Whether members received into our communion ought to be received only in private by the church session; or whether, in addition to this, and after it, there should be a public reception of such members, in the face of the congregation, upon profession of their faith, and with convenant between the church and said members?

2. If there should be such public reception, should the faith and covenant professed and entered into, be in substance the whole standards of the Church: or should the profession and covenant be limited?

3. Ought there not to be uniformity on this whole subject; and to that end, ought not the Assembly either to settle proper abbreviated formularies, or to order the general use of those of the Church, or forbid any usage which requires the use of any, in the manner now contemplated?

Another subject of great importance, and kindred to this, is the mode of reception and profession of faith by candidates for adult baptism.

And it is for the reasons already stated in the foregoing case referred to the next Assembly, with the request that it would examine and decide, whether there ought not to be provided a comprehensive formulary, or at least a simple directory for adult baptisms? and if yea; ought not the proper directory or formulary to be provided without unnecessary delay, under the care of the Assembly?

MINUTE II.

The basis of representation remaining unaltered, the Assembly recommends to the Synods,

1. The equalization, on just and convenient terms, of the Presbyteries in the bounds of each respectively, so that, as far as may be, in subordination to existing interests and general convenience, the several Presbyteries in the same Synod may approach something like equality.

2. That all the Synods, by a calm and diligent survey of this subject, so order it, as to make the Presbyteries throughout the Church stand as far as possible, regard being had as before to existing interests and general convenience, upon terms of common right and equality.

On motion, the complaint of the Presbytery of Susquehanna was discharged for want of prosecution.

On motion of Mr. Gray,

Resolved, That the Committee on Psalmody be, and they hereby are instructed to investigate the contract between the General Assembly and Mr. Whetham, on the subject of publishing our Book of Psalms and Hymns, and that they be empowered to take what order may to them seem most efficient and prudent to suppress any further emissions of the copy committed to him, and make report thereof to the next Assembly.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Ohio, reported, recommending that the records be approved. The report was accepted and adopted.

On motion of Mr. Beatty,

Resolved, That the thanks of this Assembly be presented to the inhabitants of this city for their kind hospitality to the members during these sessions.

Bills for the incidental expenses of the Assembly, during the session, amounting to $228 32, were presented, and it was,

Resolved, That the Trustees be directed to pay the same out of the Contingent Fund.

APPENDIX.

PASTORAL LETTER.

Dear Brethren,

In the present agitated state of our beloved Zion, we think it our duty to lay our whole procedure before you, with special plainness, and serious admonition, that you as well as ourselves should look earnestly and humbly to Almighty God, for the deliverance of our Church from the troubles and temptations by which we have been and are yet surrounded. We believe that all parts of our Church have looked forward to the present meeting of the Assembly for some important events, or decisive action, which might determine our future course, and give harmony to our future operations.

The last General Assembly acted under the conviction, that the only possible way to secure peace, was by the separation of the parties in our Church, which could not agree on what were deemed important principles of doctrine and Church order; and to effect this separation, which all parties acknowledged to be necessary, the majority thought proper to exercise the right of abrogating the unconstitutional action which had brought the discordant parties into their present connexion. This procedure was indeed novel; it had never been resorted to in our Church before, and from its very novelty was calculated to startle minds not accustomed to that mode of action; it was, however, the only remedy for our case, and a remedy to which all governments, possessing a written constitution, are obliged to resort when embarrassed by unconstitutional laws.

At the first meeting of the present Assembly, the friends of the last Assembly had the pleasure of ascertaining that the action of that body had been fully sustained by a large majority of our Church. So decisive was the preponderance of numbers on this occasion, that had even the members from the four disowned Synods been admitted to their seats, there would still have been a clear and not inconsiderable majority in favour of the reform which the last Assembly had commenced. In these circumstances we thought the course of Christian duty was plain to all parties, and that if the minority could not consent to submit to our views of doctrine and Church order, it was incumbent on them to make a quiet and orderly secession. The essence of all religious liberty and ecclesiastical order is evidently involved in the principle, that when two parties in the same community cannot agree, the majority must govern; but if the minority cannot in conscience submit either to the measures, or the doctrines of the majority, it is their right and duty to separate, and form a different denomination. For such a course as this on the part of the minority, we were fully prepared; we looked forward to it with satisfaction, as the only course conducive to the peace and Christian comfort of both parties; and had this course been adopted, we were willing to concur in any reasonable plan for the adjustment of any unsettled claims which might have appertained to the case. By this exposition of our views, our friends and brethren will be prepared to conceive of our astonishment and grief at the course which was actually pursued.

When the hour for organizing the Assembly had arrived, and whilst the proper officers were engaged in that business, a number of persons belonging to the minority rose in a tumultuous manner, in the midst of the house, and offered some propositions and motions, which evidently could not be entertained at the time, and which were declared to be out of order, subsequently proceeded with a confused clamour, in which something like nominations and voting could be heard, to what they called an organization of the Assembly; and then made the announcement, that that body would hold its future sessions in the First Presbyterian Church; all this was done in defiance of the authority of the Moderator of the Assembly, who was constituting the body, and who repeatedly called to order whilst this scene of confusion was in progress.

What could have led the minority to this extraordinary course is not for us to explain. It has been suggested that they considered this as the best way for securing their legal rights, and indeed it has since appeared, that they not only meant to secure their own rights, but to assume to themselves all the legal rights and claims of the whole Presbyterian Church. In this view, however, the very injustice of their plan would seem sufficient to condemn it in the estimation of all good men, not influenced by prejudice. That a minority, by such a movement, could take to themselves the whole property of the Church, and strip the majority of all their rights, would certainly be an unjust procedure, and if even all this were practicable in point of law, yet in the court of conscience, we believe there are but few men who would be willing to sanction it. But can it be supposed that such a course could be supported in a court of law? The legal decision which would sustain such a course, would establish a principle destructive of the rights of every ecclesiastical organization throughout the world; for it is abundantly plain that in any church organization which could be formed, a minority might arise, no matter how small that minority, which would be able, on the plan practised in this case, to divest the majority of all its power and its property, and ruin the Church. Surely the members of the minority could not mean to establish a principle of law, by which indeed they might be able to ruin the Presbyterian Church this year, but by which a portion, however small, might be able the next year to ruin them, and strip them of all their vested rights—a principle, in fact, which a disorderly minority in any Church might at any time employ for the subversion of that Church. We find it therefore difficult to believe, that the minority could have expected to obtain the property and the power of the Presbyterian Church by the movement in question, and what they did expect or intend by it, we must leave to themselves, or to future circumstances to explain.

Had the minority exercised a little more confidence in the majority, we think all the points of separation might have been adjusted in a manner more advantageous to themselves, and certainly in a manner more consistent with that Christian deportment which all professors of religion are bound to exhibit before the world. When the General Assembly of 1837, determined that a separation of the parties in the Presbyterian Church was necessary to its peace, and appointed a joint committee to adjust the terms of separation, the mode of dividing the property was agreed upon to the satisfaction of both parties. We have never heard that plan of division objected to since that time, by any of the minority, and we have no doubt the majority would at this day have consented to it; here, then, was an obvious mode of settling all questions of property, which we think would have given general satisfaction to the members of both parties, and which ought to have been adopted. Perhaps the minority will say that their reason for acting as they did, was that they had proposed a negotiation just before the organization of the Assembly, which was rejected. It is true they did propose a negotiation, and the proposition was rejected; but the reason for that rejection was, that the proposition assumed as the ground of the whole negation, that the action of the last Assembly in disowning the four Synods of Western Reserve, Utica, Geneva, and Genesee, should be considered as unconstitutional, null, and void; and as a large majority of the Presbyteries in our Church had determined that said action of the last Assembly ought now to be carried into effect, it was evident that the proposition aforesaid could not be entertained by the members of this Assembly.

Such, dear brethren, is a brief statement of the facts and circumstances forced upon our attention at the commencement of the present Assembly, and we do not deem it necessary here to dwell any longer, or give any further detail of the events of our past history, which have brought matters to their present state. Both parties in our Church have placed their views of the reforming measures of the last Assembly fully before the public; the public has deliberated on the matter; and a decided majority of our Presbyteries have exercised their right of declaring that those reforming measures ought to be sustained and carried into effect; and in consequence of this decision, the minority have departed from us, and organized a secession. The Church is now fairly divided into two separate and independent denominations. Of this secession we only complain as to the manner in which it was effected—for we hold it to be the unalienable right of all Christians, a right which duty requires them to exercise, to separate themselves from other Christians with whom they cannot conscientiously agree on subjects of Christian doctrine and Church order. When disagreements arise on these points, such denominational separations afford the only means of preserving the peace and purity of the Church, in its present imperfect state.

And now, beloved brethren, as the first step of this necessary separation has been taken, it is our prayer to Almighty God, that he would dispose and enable all parties concerned, to carry it out in such manner as may be most consistent with the Christian spirit, and most conducive to a speedy restoration of general peace and Christian affection between the members of the respective bodies. It will facilitate the attainment of this desirable object to keep in memory the fact, that no sentence of excommunication has ever passed between the bodies; we merely separate into different denominations, as Christians who cannot agree to live together in the same particular Church. We can assure our friends at a distance, that the blessed effects of this separation are already apparent in this General Assembly; we have now, as we trust, "the unity of the Spirit in the bonds of peace," as it pervaded our General Assemblies in former happy periods of our history, when we all "spake, and thought, and minded the same things."

Rejoicing as we do, that this separation is thus far effected, yet we think it important to request our brethren and the churches under our care, to ponder in the fear of God, the events through which we have passed, and to draw from them those lessons of circumspection and humility which they are calculated to give. A few of the last years of our history have presented a mortifying spectacle, which we humbly hope never to see again, in connexion with our body. By the appointment of God, the Church ought to be "a pillar and ground of the truth—a light of the world—a candle, giving light to all that are in the house." For the last seven or eight years of our history we have been full of darkness, our Church has been occupied with strife, filled with railing accusations and misrepresentations among professed brethren, which was well calculated to harden sinners, and provoke the scoffs of the infidel.

That the Church was possessed of materials for furnishing such a spectacle as we have witnessed, affords evidence that God saw something extremely wrong in our communion, before our late troubles overtook us; the trials through which we have passed, was a dispensation of that kind Father, who holds the Church as the apple of his eye, and who never needlessly afflicts the children of men; and whether our guilt has consisted in pride, in hypocrisy, in worldliness, or in indifference to the truth, or whether it may have consisted in all these united, it is yet certain that our chastisement has not been heavier than our crimes, and that we have much cause as a Church, and as private Christians, for deep repentance, careful self-examination, and turning to God, that he may show us wherefore he has contended with us, and may purify us to himself, as a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

And as much of our late criminality may have consisted in things unobserved by ourselves, we think it of special importance, at the present time, to urge upon all our brethren the necessity of diligent and devout attention to what are called the secret means of grace. Could we know that our brethren were generally much engaged in secret reading and meditation on the Word of God, and in "praying with all prayer," "and without ceasing," we should then believe that a happy and glorious reformation of our Church would certainly be accomplished, and that Zion would soon look forth from her chambers, "fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners." The promises of Scripture make it very certain that if our Church was filled with the spirit of humble and holy prayer, it would soon be filled with every blessing; God will give his Holy Spirit; he will give himself; he will give every temporal and eternal good to those who ask agreeably to his will.

We will further observe, that the duty of fasting, as united with prayer, appears to be too much disregarded, if not entirely neglected by many Christians of the present day. We agree with our fathers of the Reformation, that the appointment of annual or stated fasts are not authorized under the gospel dispensation; but occasional fasting, both public and private, such as is called for by peculiar circumstances, or by the dispensations of Heaven, are still among the appointed means of grace, and form an important part of Christian duty. Our Saviour said, the children of the bride-chamber would fast when the bridegroom was taken from them; surely such a dispensation as we have lately witnessed, should lead those children to fast.

As our work at this time is a work of reformation, we believe the present is a proper period for correcting any deviations from Presbyterian usage, or from the old commendable practices of our Church, which may have crept in among us. It is important to every community of Christians, that the youth of that community, should as far as practicable, be indoctrinated in its principles. We fear, however, that in the important work of bringing up the children of the Church, "in the nurture and admonition of the Lord," both parents and pastors have too much neglected our larger and shorter catechisms, and especially our larger catechism. Whilst we rejoice in the additional means, which the publications and institutions of the present day have furnished for the assistance of family and juvenile instruction, yet we do not believe that any thing has been furnished, which could at all justify the laying aside of our excellent catechisms. We believe that no uninspired men have ever been able to exhibit in as short a compass, safer and sounder views of the doctrines of salvation, than is contained in those catechisms, and we should rejoice to see our larger catechism brought back to its former place in the system of both family and pastoral instruction, and as extensively as practicable committed to memory. We are persuaded that the dear youth under our care would lose neither time nor labour, by making their minds as familiar as possible with that excellent summary of the doctrines of Christ.

And among other things, beloved brethren, we esteem it our duty to recommend to your patronage and perusal, suitable religious periodicals. We know it has been made a question by some, whether the Church would not be better without those papers and periodicals which are called religious, than with them. This is a question we shall not discuss in the abstract; such papers have been, and will continue to be circulated, and the only antidote for those that do evil, is to circulate those which do good. We should suppose that intelligent Christians would not find it difficult to determine what papers or periodicals they ought to sustain; they may try such papers by the Bible; they may try them by the standards of the Church, or, according to our Saviour's rule, they may try them by their fruits. "Men do not gather grapes of thorns, nor figs of thistles;" publications filled with railings and misrepresentations, cannot produce the peaceable fruits of righteousness.

And now, brethren, we would say in conclusion, let us with cheerful and Christian confidence, as well as with true humility, put our trust in the living God. We believe the work in which we are engaged is the work of God. If we know ourselves, and we have prayed that we might know ourselves in the present case—our great and only motive has been, to maintain the truth as it is in Jesus. We believe that the interests of truth are at stake—we believe that our standards contain that revealed system of truth, which God has ordained for extending his glory and his salvation over the whole earth; and although we have nothing to do in judging those that are without, yet we cannot suffer this system to be mutilated or perverted by those who teach in our communion, and are professedly under our authority. With brethren of other communions, who honestly differ from us on some points, we have no contest; we leave the questions between them and us, to the judgment of our common Master; but as to persons in our own communion, we must contend earnestly for what we believe to be the faith, and whilst we ascribe no infallibility to our own judgments, or even to our own standards, yet the opinions we have formed from the Word of God, must to us be the rule of our faith and practice; and whilst engaged, as we humbly trust, in maintaining the truth and the cause of our Saviour, we look to the living God for the success of our efforts. We also believe that the hand of God has been visible in leading us, and conducting our cause to the present issue, and we hope the same Almighty power will guide us and you in all our future operations.

As reformation has been frequently mentioned in the preceding remarks, we trust it will be understood by our churches, that no new doctrine or practice is to be introduced. The Assembly merely intends that there should be a return to the faith and practice of our Church, as heretofore inculcated in our standards, wherever there may have been a departure. We would further recommend that in view of the events through which we have passed, and the deliverance which we hope Almighty God has bestowed upon our Church, that the second Thursday of December next be solemnly observed by all the members of our communion, as a day of solemn humiliation, thanksgiving, and prayer, and that the churches and congregations in our connexion meet on that day for the purpose of public worship.

PASTORAL LETTER TO FOREIGN MISSIONARIES.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, to the Missionaries under the care of their Board of Foreign Missions, wish grace, mercy and peace.

Very dear Brethren,

Assembled as usual, as the representatives of the whole Church with which we are connected, to deliberate on its affairs, and to devise measures for extending the Redeemer's Kingdom, we cannot forbear to pour out the fulness of our hearts to those beloved brethren who have gone forth from our bosom to carry the glorious gospel to the benighted heathen.

Not that our confidence in either the wisdom or fidelity of the Board which we have appointed, or of their Executive Committee, is in the least impaired. On the contrary, their annual report, recently received, has our entire approbation, and furnishes new evidence both of their competency and faithfulness. And we trust that all the instructions and communications of the Executive Committee, who are more immediately charged with the supervision of your labours, will be received with all that respect and docility to which they are so well entitled. But as it is our firm belief that the Church, in her ecclesiastical capacity, is bound to superintend and direct, as far as practicable, the missions which she authorizes, we cannot deny ourselves the pleasure of directly addressing you on several subjects which we deem important, and in regard to which we are desirous of stirring up your minds by way of remembrance. The solemnity and responsibility of your situation, as bearers of the Word of Life to those who are sitting in darkness and the shadow of death; the perils and privations to which you are exposed; and the probable consequences of the manner in which you discharge your ministry, all crowd into our minds, and fill us with unspeakable solicitude, while we entreat your attention to those considerations which, with all respect and tenderness, we would impress upon your minds; and,

1. We earnestly exhort you to AIM CONTINUALLY AT A HIGH STANDARD OF PERSONAL PIETY. We doubt not you have already become convinced by experience, that a strong faith, an humble, tender confidence in the power and faithfulness of your covenant God, and a cheerful submission to the many trials which await you, are peculiarly important to gospel labourers among the heathen. It is perfectly evident that small attainments in piety are altogether insufficient to sustain and carry forward the Missionary in his self-denying and arduous work. Unless you live near to God, and abound in prayer, in reading His Word, and in habits of peculiar and devout communion with the Father of your Spirits, and his Son, Jesus Christ, you will find but little comfort, and probably but little success in your labours. Deep and ardent piety is inestimably precious to every disciple of Christ, and especially to every minister, in every situation in which either can be placed; but in no situation can it be regarded as so vitally important as to those who are called to labour amidst the darkness and desolations of the heathen world, and to encounter the numberless difficulties which the degrading superstitions, the profligate habits, and the philosophy, falsely so called, of the heathen, constantly present. We entreat you, therefore, first of all, and above all, to study to grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. This is your highest duty—your most precious privilege—your surest consolation under all the trials of life—and the most certain pledge that your labours will not be in vain in the Lord.

2. In imparting a knowledge of the gospel to the heathen, BE CAREFUL TO COMMUNICATE ITS PURE AND SIMPLE DOCTRINES, WITHOUT ANY OF THOSE ADDITIONS OR MODIFICATIONS WHICH HUMAN PHILOSOPHY, FALSELY SO CALLED, IS APT TO SUGGEST. God has promised to bless the truth, and he has not promised to bless any thing else. The prayer of the Master is, sanctify them through thy truth; thy word is truth. The precious message of life and peace which you bear to the heathen is not your message, but Christ's. Your duty evidently, then, is to "preach the preaching which he bids you," without turning from it either to the right hand or to the left. Let the Bible be your great directory in every sermon. You are now laying the foundations of divine truth and order among the heathen. See that you every where make Jesus Christ, and him crucified, the chief corner stone. Never admit for a moment the thought of accommodating the doctrines of the gospel to the corrupt taste of your hearers. Be not backward to teach the heathen that, by the sin of our first parents we lost our original righteousness, and became guilty before God; that we are all by nature totally depraved, destitute of holiness and of all strength in ourselves to regain either the image or the favour of God; that there is no other ground of justification than the righteousness of the Redeemer, imputed to us, and received by faith alone; and that without the renewing and sanctifying power of the Holy Spirit, no sinner can either return to God, or be prepared for the holy joys of his presence. These humbling and self-denying doctrines form the great theme of all the apostolical addresses to the primitive churches; and although those holy men, in encountering the prejudices of the heathen, had every temptation to soften the aspect of their instruction, and to accommodate it to the proud claims and the voluptuous habits of those around them, they refused to do either; but whether the heathen would hear, or whether they would forbear, they charged home upon them their real character, and assured them that without holiness no man should see the Lord. Let this practice be your model. You will never be likely to benefit the poor pagans unless you go to them, not with "the enticing words of man's wisdom," but with "the simplicity that is in Christ;" unfolding to them without fear or reserve what they are by nature; what they have made themselves by sinful practice; and what they must be by the grace of God, or eternally perish. All history bears witness that just in proportion as the ministers of religion fail of preaching the pure and simple doctrines of the gospel, their ministry loses its power; vital piety declines, and the Church becomes a scene of discord and strife, instead of heavenly love.

3. BE CAREFUL TO LET YOUR EXAMPLE AT ALL TIMES MANIFEST THE POWER AND PURITY OF THE RELIGION YOU TEACH. Endeavour to exemplify in your own conduct the holy and self-denying system which you bear to them as the gospel of the grace of God. It is deeply to be regretted that so many nominal Christians, with whom the heathen have frequent intercourse, exhibit an example adapted to fill them with prejudices against the gospel, and to make even the name of Christian odious in their view. This melancholy fact renders it of peculiar importance that those who go among them as ministers of our holy religion should study so to conduct themselves as to be "living epistles" in favour of the truth, known and read of all who see them. This will soon satisfy them that you really are what you profess to be, and will be in the place of a thousand arguments in favour of the religion you profess. For although they are filled with prejudices against the holy system which you teach; yet they are close observers of facts, and will not fail of receiving impressions from them.

4. We entreat you to bear in mind THAT ALL YOUR LABOURS WILL BE IN VAIN, UNLESS THEY ARE ACCOMPANIED AND MADE EFFECTUAL BY THE POWER OF THE HOLY SPIRIT. "Paul may plant, and Apollo water, but God giveth the increase." "He that planteth is nothing, and he that watereth is nothing, but it is God that showeth mercy." It is of the utmost importance that this great principle in the economy of grace be ever borne in mind in all your ministrations. The moment it is forgotten, you will go forth in your own strength, and God, in righteous displeasure, will probably disappoint your hopes. His glory He will not give to another. Let all your labours, then, be begun and constantly attended with humble, importunate prayer for that power of the Holy Spirit, by which alone they can become efficacious. When most sensible of your own weakness and insufficiency, and most deeply impressed with a sense of your need, at every step, of divine aid, the greater is the probability of your happy success. Ever study to walk humbly with God, and to look to the power of his grace alone for the fruit of all your labours. And let your views of the power and riches of the Holy Spirit's influence be large and confident. The territories of heathenism have already been repeatedly blessed, within our memory, with powerful and most precious revivals of religion; and the time is not far distant when nations, sunk in sin and death, shall be "born in a day." Expect great things, then; and pray without ceasing for great displays of the power of God in convincing and converting sinners, and building up believers in faith and holiness unto salvation.

5. Let the heathen among whom you labour SEE THAT YOU LOVE THEM, AND THAT YOU ARE INTENT ON PROMOTING THEIR BEST INTERESTS. Your labours will be pleasant to yourselves, as well as more likely to benefit them in proportion to the degree in which you feel and manifest an ardent desire to advance their happiness. You can probably do much for promoting their temporal as well as their eternal welfare, by recommending abstinence from intoxicating liquors; industry, the introduction of important arts and trades; and, in short, every thing which has a bearing on personal and domestic comfort. Every benefit of this nature which you confer on the heathen will endear you to them, and will also prepare them more fully to profit by your evangelical ministrations. In a word, every thing that you can do to lift them up in the scale of knowledge and civilization, as well as of Christianity, will be important, and will forward the great purpose for which you are sent to them.

6. We recommend to your attention, and to your unceasing prayers, THE CHILDREN OF THE HEATHEN. We are far from despairing of the conversion of adults among them. Experience, as well as the Word of God, shows that the power of the Holy Spirit can overcome the most obstinate hardness, as well as the most inveterate habits of pagan profligacy. And, therefore, it will be your duty to preach the gospel to all classes, in every form, and by all the means in your power. Proclaiming the Word of Life, by the living teacher, is God's own ordinance, which ought never to be exchanged for any other, where it is possible to employ it. But still we consider the children and young people as pre-eminently the hope of your missionary labours. The greater susceptibility of the youthful mind—the durability of impressions made in early life—and the comparative ease with which habits are changed which have not become inveterate—all recommend diligent and persevering efforts to form the minds of children and youth, as among the most promising and probably productive departments of missionary labour. But this is not all. Parents themselves are never more likely to be effectually reached and profited than through the medium of their children. They will, of course, regard with favour those whom they see to be labouring for the happiness of their offspring; and when they see their children growing in knowledge and in good habits under the instruction of the Missionaries, this will form a new bond of attachment, and open a new avenue to their hearts.

We exhort you, therefore, next to the preaching of the gospel, to make the instruction of heathen youth, in every form which you may find practicable and expedient, an object of your constant and diligent attention. But let all your schools and instructions be strongly stamped with a Christian character. Let the Bible be every where carefully introduced. Let all your efforts for the benefit of youth be consecrated with prayer; and let the excellent catechisms of our Church be as early and as extensively employed as possible, as formularies of instruction. Recollect that it is our object to raise up, as soon as practicable among the heathen, a native ministry. The attainment of this object will require the most vigorous efforts to educate the young; the selection of the most promising of their number for special culture, and elevating the means of their instruction as far as circumstances will admit.

7. Be careful to MAINTAIN IN ALL YOUR MISSIONS, THE WORSHIP AND ORDER, AS WELL AS THE DOCTRINE OF YOUR OWN CHURCH. We have no desire either to cherish ourselves, or to recommend to you a sectarian spirit. But we cannot think that a warm attachment to our own beloved Church, and a decided preference of its rites and polity, deserve to be so styled. As long as we believe them to be founded on the Word of God, we must consider an adherence to them as our incumbent duty. And as you are the representatives among the heathen of the Church of your choice, we trust you will faithfully maintain all its claims and usages. The only departure from this principle which we can consider as likely, in some cases, to be necessary, is that which relates to the appointment of ruling elders. In the infancy of the Church, at some of the missionary stations, it may not be always practicable to obtain suitable candidates for this office among the converts from paganism. In this case, as we have no doubt happened in the apostolic age, it will be proper for the teaching elder or elders at each station, to perform the usual duties of the church session until suitable ruling elders can be obtained. It is hardly necessary to add, however, that this expedient ought not to be continued an hour longer than is absolutely necessary.

8. We hope you will BE DILIGENT IN COLLECTING ALL THE INFORMATION OF EVERY KIND, which can be considered as bearing on the missionary cause, not only for your own benefit, but also for transmission to the Executive Committee, for the enlargement of their views, and their guidance in the great work entrusted to their management.

Finally, dear brethren, you are engaged in the noblest cause that can employ the attention and efforts of mortals. Be faithful unto death, and you shall receive a crown of life. And unite with us in prayer that the whole Church may, with one heart and one soul, come up to the performance of this great work. We pledge ourselves, in the fear of God, to you and to the heathen world, that, by the favour of the Almighty King of Zion, we will go forward in this cause, and employ all the means which He may put at our disposal, in prosecuting the enterprise before us. May the Lord inspire you with wisdom, and gird you with strength! And may the Spirit of Missions be poured out in large measures upon all the churches, that they may all feel their obligation, and all, with one consent, and with united strength, come up to the help of the Lord against the mighty!

NARRATIVE OF THE STATE OF RELIGION.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in examining the several narratives of the state of religion sent up by the Presbyteries, though there are many things which furnish ground for deep humiliation, yet find much to cheer and encourage the friends of the Saviour beyond what is common in the reports of former years. Many of the Presbyteries have sent up no report on this subject. From those which have been made, the Assembly have carefully studied the state of religion and the prospects of its advancement, in the churches under their care, and now submit the result of their examination.

Among the indications of good which we discover, are an increased and increasing attention, in a great number of our Presbyteries, to catechetical instruction, a growing attachment to the doctrines and order of the Presbyterian Church, and a greater disposition to adhere to and sustain the Boards of Missions and of Education which have been established by the General Assembly. They think too that they have been able to derive from the reports, that there is, throughout the churches, an increasing attention to the religious education of youth by means of Sabbath schools and Bible classes, and that these institutions are beginning to be more highly regarded by the churches, and to be taken more directly under the supervision of the pastors and elders than heretofore. They rejoice in believing that the officers of the Church are awakening to a sense of their duty in these respects. From the position which they occupy—from the obligations which they have taken upon themselves, and from the example which they are bound to set to their brethren—they should take the lead in these matters. The mental and moral and religious training of the generation, that is to succeed us in bearing onward the banners of the Cross, should not be left entirely to inexperienced hands. The pastors and elders of the Church should be foremost in the promotion of this object, and their wisdom and experience and steady hand should guide it in the outset, and hold it firmly in the proper course. The Assembly think that the Church is attending to this duty better than heretofore. This fact, and the additional fact that a greater regard is paid to instruction in the Shorter Catechism, encourage us to hope that the children of the Church will be more thoroughly instructed in the evangelical doctrines and precepts of the Scriptures than their fathers were, and that with the proper understanding of these things, the liability of the Church to be distracted hereafter with internal doctrinal dissensions will decrease.

The Boards of Foreign and Domestic Missions and of Education have been conducted with energy and skill, and deserve, as they are receiving the increasing regard of the whole Church. And the Assembly are pleased to learn that more has been done by the churches during the past year, for the support of the benevolent operations of the Church, than in any former year. The Assembly are not, however, permitted to say that they are by any means as fully sustained as the state of the world, and our duty to our fellow men and to God, the Head of the Church, demands. The heathen world—part of it in utter moral darkness, in entire ignorance that there is a way of salvation from the apprehended desert of sin, and part of it already stretching out its hands towards us for help, and directing its eyes to us for light—loudly demands the attention of the Church. The waste places of Zion in our own land—the many, very many vacant churches in all parts of our beloved country, and the many, very many places where as yet no house has been erected for the public worship of our Father in Heaven, and for the religious instruction of the people—where no herald of the Cross goes forth to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord—all present most urgent and persevering entreaties that we should not suffer our benevolence to languish, nor our liberality to decrease with regard to them. They all remind us that our Boards of Education and of Missions must be steadily and efficiently sustained, so that soon these moral desolations may be cheered with the mild and salutary and life-giving influence of the gospel. Let us not disregard these high claims, these solemn duties.

The Assembly rejoice in finding that the reports of the Presbyteries disclose a state of greater unanimity, peace, and harmony in relation to doctrines and practice than has heretofore existed, and fondly hope that the time is fast approaching when our beloved Church shall be entirely freed from all those dissensions and causes of dissension which have heretofore so much disturbed her peace and harmony.

The cause of temperance appears to be making but slow progress. In many places the friends of the Saviour appear to have become discouraged, and to have relaxed their efforts. From some places the complaint is still sent up that members, and even elders of the Church, forgetting the true position in which they stand—the ruin which they may be causing to the souls of men, and the injury they are doing to the cause of the blessed Saviour—still interpose their influence and example to prevent the onward progress of the temperance reformation. At the same time we are gratified to learn that, in many places, this cause has been making rapid progress, and that many regions have been greatly blessed with its healing influences.

The Assembly would most sincerely thank God that genuine revivals of religion have been more frequent and of longer continuance within our bounds, during the past year, than during many that have preceded it. In some of the Presbyteries the reviving and regenerating influences of the Holy Spirit have been most powerfully felt, and many, even aged sinners, including the soldier of the Revolution, have been brought to the foot of the Cross, and enabled to rejoice in the God of their salvation. In other Presbyteries and churches, although these heavenly dews have been distilled to a more limited extent, still the seed sown has been watered, and has brought forth fruit, and we would rejoice and be glad in it. The tokens of good have been sufficient to revive the confidence of many of the devoted servants of Christ, and encourage them in their work. With her advancement in purity the Church has been growing in grace and increasing in numbers. As she is becoming freed from the excitement growing out of a protracted and severe controversy, which had well nigh dried up all her strength, she is rising in her majesty and beginning to show herself fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners. Unincumbered by any thing from without, undivided, or nearly so in sentiment and action, she begins to go forth as a united power, as with the mind of one man, carrying the tidings of salvation to a ruined world; and, undistracted by party excitements and heart-burnings, she addresses her united and ardent prayer to the God of Jacob, that all the means of grace may be abundantly blessed, and that the Head of the Church may be honoured, and sinners every where be saved through her instrumentality.

It is with great pleasure the Assembly learn that there is an increasing attention paid by the Presbyteries and pastors to the instruction of the coloured population, particularly in places where this class of people is numerous. The General Assembly hope that the duty of the Church in relation to these people may be more fully understood, and that wherever they are to be found, proper religious instruction may be provided for them.

The cause of seamen and boatmen, too, has not been overlooked. The benevolence of the Church is still turned towards them, and facilities for their religious instruction appear to have been increased during the past year. Other objects of benevolence appear to have received their usual attention from the churches.

Notwithstanding these indications of divine favour which present themselves here and there as verdant spots watered by the dews of heavenly grace and warmed by its mild influences, where the eye of the humble and believing Christian may rest with delight, yet the Assembly lament that the great body of the Church is still in a state of coldness and declension. God's people have backsliden from their duty—they have forgotten their first love—the world, a desire of gain, and a spirit of speculation, have drawn off their hearts—neglect of the domestic altar is very prevalent, and, though their attendance upon the public worship of God has been good as heretofore, yet it is to be feared that it is with less spirituality of mind; and, every lover of the Saviour, in viewing the whole ground, feels that there is indeed a wilderness before him, and he is constrained to exclaim—"oh! that my head were waters, and my eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people."

Among the causes which seem to have retarded the progress of the gospel, one which appears very prominent is a disposition among God's people to be carried away with, and to unite in keeping up the various exciting topics of discussion which peculiarly distinguish the present day. This has been called the age of improvement. Such it may be. But it certainly is an age of excitement and innovation—an age in which many appear to think themselves called upon to question and unsettle principles and practices which have received the enlightened sanction of centuries—to contest the propriety of things held most sacred—to uproot and destroy the deep foundations of all order, social, political and religious—and to keep the mind of society in a state of constant excitement and change. This disposition has not been without the countenance of professing Christians—and its effect has been felt throughout the whole Church. Many of God's people, instead of lending their talents, their influence, and their feelings to the great work of saving sinners, have given them another direction. They have assisted in attracting the attention of the Church and of the world to other objects which have so effectually engrossed the mind as to exclude the peaceful truths of the gospel, and prevent their efficacy. In order that the gospel may have its most rapid and glorious progress, the minds of men should be in such a calm, composed, and unexcited state, that the attention may be directed as individually as possible to gospel invitations and gospel truths. The Church, instead of countenancing any other state of public feeling, should exert itself to allay and repress all such excitements—should throw oil upon the troubled waters—and should earnestly pray to the great Head of the Church, that he would speak peace to the raging elements, that there might be no obstacles to hinder, no difficulties to retard the rapid advancement of his glorious Kingdom.

The highest number of students connected with the Seminary, at any time through the year, has been 135. The number now connected with it is 110.

The students have been semi-annually examined in the presence of a committee of the Board. The examinations have been satisfactory.

At the close of the summer session, certificates that they had finished the whole course of study prescribed in the Plan, were conferred on the following twenty-four young men, viz. Samuel B. Ayers, S. Martin Bayless, Tyrrell Blair, Edward Bryan, A. W. Chevalier, Richard Curran, Peter Dougherty, Robert W. Dunlap, Frederick S. Earnst, Julius Foster, A. H. Hand, S. P. Helme, Isaac J. Henderson, Samuel Kellogg, John M. M'Cauley, William N. Mebane, John H. Morrison, John Moule, Ezekiel Quillin, Elias S. Schenck, Joseph Sillcocks, Robin E. Smith, Daniel Wells, and G. D. Young. The Board are gratified to be able to report, that so many young men have, in this class, continued in the Seminary until they had finished the whole course of study. The number is the largest they have ever been able to report; and they earnestly hope that the example of this class may be followed by subsequent classes.

On the subject of benefactions for necessitous students, the professors have reported the receipt of the following sums, viz.

From the Female Society of the Church of Waterford, New York, -	$17 75
Female Society of Duane street Church, New York, - - -	123 06
	$140 81

A bundle of shirts, (23 in number,) from the Dorcas Society, city of New York.

The Board gratefully acknowledge the following donations to the library through the year, viz. from Rev. James Smith, of Philadelphia, 7 vols. of rare and very valuable books, most of them folios; the widow of the late Rev. Robert Roy, 5 vols.; Mr. N. W. Chevalier, a late student, 1 vol. folio; Mr. Henry James, also a late student, 17 vols.; and Rev. Dr. Rufus L. Anderson, of Boston, 9 Nos. of a periodical published at Smyrna, Asia, by the American Missionaries.

The Board would also, with gratitude, inform the Assembly, that Mr. H. C. Turnbull, of Baltimore, has, with the concurrence of Bishop M'Coskry, who was also interested, made a donation to the Seminary of the remaining library of the late Rev. Dr. Charles Nesbit, of Carlisle, amounting to more than 1000 volumes.

This liberal donation is on the following conditions, viz. "that the library be kept together, and that the name of the Rev. Charles Nesbit, D. D., be inscribed over it, in a conspicuous place, and that the Presbytery of New Brunswick agree to become the guardians of said library, so far as that if any other system of doctrines than that now taught in said Seminary, that is, if any doctrines should hereafter be inculcated, inconsistent with sound Calvanism, as comprehended in the Confession of Faith and Catechisms of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, the Presbytery of New Brunswick shall remove the said library, and dispose of it in such manner as in their judgment will subserve the advancement of sound doctrine. And of the fact of a departure from sound doctrine in the instructions of the Seminary, the Presbytery aforesaid shall be the sole judges." The Presbytery of New Brunswick have accepted the guardianship, and the books have been received into the Seminary.

On the subject of the library, the Board would further report, that by a decision of the Chancellor of New Jersey, the books of the Mason library have been adjudged to belong to the Associate Reformed Synod of New York. This library consists of 2438 volumes. This decree removes from the Seminary a large number of books, and these the most valuable. A full report on this subject belongs to the Trustees of the Seminary, and will doubtless be made by that Board. It is mentioned in this place to call the attention of the friends of the Seminary to the great importance of immediate effort to supply the chasm made in the library of the Seminary, by the removal of the Mason department.

The Board have the pleasure to report, that Mr. Joseph Addison Alexander, at their late meeting, declared his acceptance of the office of Professor of Oriental and Biblical Literature, to which he was elected by the General Assembly of 1835. The Board have made arrangements to inaugurate him at the next stated meeting.

The Board recommend to the Assembly to make the two following amendments to the Constitution, viz.

1. To amend Section 10, of Article VI., so as to read as follows: "There shall be two vacations in the Seminary in every year, one in the spring, of six weeks, and the other in the autumn, of eight weeks' continuance, each to commence at such times as the Board of Directors may direct."

2. To strike out the whole of Section 7, of Article II., which requires the whole of the Plan of the Seminary to be read before the Board at the commencement of each stated spring meeting.

The Board also recommend to the Assembly to raise the salary of Professor J. Addison Alexander, to $1500 per annum.

The Board have further to report, that the late Robert Ralston, Esq., of Philadelphia, has endowed a scholarship in the Seminary, by a bequest of $2500.

The Board conclude their report, with the names of the Directors whose term of office expires during the sessions of the present Assembly. They are the following, viz.

In regard to the Mason Library, and the funds of the Associate Reformed Church, the Trustees have to report, that the Chancellor of New Jersey has given a decree against them.

An official copy of this decree is herewith laid before the Assembly, and is as follows, viz.

IN CHANCERY OF NEW JERSEY.

Of the Term of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight.

BETWEEN

DECREE.

This cause coming on to be heard in the presence of Theodore Frelinghuysen of counsel for the complainants, and of Henry W. Green of counsel for the defendants—and upon opening the bill and answer, and reading the proofs and exhibits in the cause, and report upon file made by Archer Gifford, one of the Masters of this Court, bearing date on the twenty-seventh day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven—from all which it appears that the library of books, in possession of the defendants, and adjudged to be the property of the complainants, consists of two thousand four hundred and thirty-eight volumes, as admitted in the answer of the defendants, and particularly specified in the schedule thereof, annexed to the said answer, that there is due from the defendants to the complainants the sum of one thousand four hundred and one dollars and seventeen cents in money, and that the ten shares of stock in the Schuylkill Permanent Bridge Company, and the three shares of stock in the Manhattan Bank, in the city of New York, belong to the complainants, and ought to be transferred to them, or to their solicitor for their use; and that the dividends on said Manhattan stock, declared and made from the twelfth day of May, 1823, to July, 1833, being twenty-one semi-annual dividends, and the dividends from the last mentioned period have never been claimed or received by the defendants, and that the same are due to the complainants. And no cause being shown or appearing against confirming the said report: It is on this sixteenth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, by his excellency William Pennington, Governor and Chancellor of New Jersey, ordered, adjudged, and decreed, that the said Master's report do stand ratified and confirmed: That the said defendants do deliver to the complainants or their solicitor and upon his written order, the said library of books with the cases that contain them, and transfer unto the said complainants, or their solicitor for their use, the said ten shares of stock of the Schuylkill Permanent Bridge Company, and the three shares of Manhattan Bank stock, and pay unto the complainants or their solicitor the said sum of one thousand four hundred and one dollars and seventeen cents, with interest from this date. And it is further ordered and decreed, that the complainants are entitled to receive and have the said unclaimed dividends of the Manhattan stock, and that the complainants have liberty, if there shall be occasion therefor, to apply to this Court, for the process of this Court, to enforce and effect the execution of this decree. And it is further ordered, that each party pay their own costs in the premises.

A true copy.—STACY G. POTTS, Clerk.

At the meeting of the Board in September last, a committee was appointed to draw up a statement proper to be adopted by the Trustees, in this state of the business. At the present meeting of the Board, this committee reported; and their report was adopted, and ordered to be incorporated in the report to the Assembly. It is as follows, viz.

The Committee appointed September, 1837, on the subject of the Mason Library, respectfully report,

That in 1831, "the Rev. Joseph M'Carrell and Mr. John Forsyth appeared in the General Assembly as Commissioners from the Associate Reformed Synod of New York, and presented a memorial from said Synod, urging a claim to the library and certain funds, transferred by the General Synod of the Associate Reformed Church, at the time they dissolved, to the General Assembly, and now in possession of the Theological Seminary at Princeton." The memorial having been referred to a committee, and a report made thereon, it was resolved by the Assembly, "That the memorial and the report be referred to the Trustees of the Theological Seminary at Princeton, for the purpose of investigating the claims of the memorialists, and if in the judgment of the said Trustees, the property in question belongs either in law or equity to the Associate Reformed Synod of New York, the said Trustees be hereby advised by this Assembly to deliver the property to the Synod aforesaid." In September, 1831, the memorial, with the accompanying documents, were referred by the Board of Trustees to a committee, consisting of the Hon. Charles Ewing, the Hon. Samuel L. Southard, and the Rev. Dr. William W. Phillips. That committee, after a full investigation of the claim, in April, 1832, reported their opinion to the Board, and closed their report by saying that, "in our opinion the property in question does not belong either in law or equity to the Associate Reformed Synod of New York." This report was unanimously adopted by the Board, and laid before the General Assembly in May, 1832, and by the Assembly referred to a committee, consisting of Messrs. Jonas Platt, Jessup, Lumpkin, Banks, and R. J. Breckinridge. Upon the report and recommendation of the committee, the Assembly adopted the following resolution, viz. "Resolved, That the said opinion and report, transmitted to this Assembly by the Trustees of the Theological Seminary at Princeton be accepted and approved; and that said Trustees be and they are hereby empowered to adopt and pursue any measures by amicable suit at law, or in equity, or by arbitration, if they deem it expedient or necessary, in order to settle and determine any claim or claims, which the Associate Reformed Synod of New York, or any other person or persons, or body corporate, may make to the property, which is the subject of the opinion referred to." Other claims to the property having been from time to time preferred to the General Assembly, it was deemed on the part of the Board of Trustees, neither necessary nor expedient, to submit the decision of these conflicting claims to arbitration. Such a course might have afforded ground for cavil or complaint against the Board on the part of some of the claimants. In pursuance of the authority contained in the last preceding resolution of the General Assembly, an appearance was entered on behalf of this Board, to an amicable suit, instituted in the Court of Chancery of the State of New Jersey, by the Trustees of the Associate Reformed Church in Newburgh, and the Trustees of the Associate Reformed Congregation in Little Britain, as well for themselves, as in behalf of all the other Associate Reformed Churches and Congregations in the State of New York, against the Trustees of the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church. This cause having been argued before two successive Chancellors, an interlocutory decree in favour of the complainants was made by his excellency Philemon Dickerson, then being Chancellor, at July Term, 1837, and a final decree rendered thereon at January Term, 1838.

The decree of the Court is that the complainants are entitled to recover of the defendants, in specie, the said library of books, papers, records, moneys, and other property received by the said defendants, by virtue of the Act of Union between the General Assembly and the Synod of the Associate Reformed Church, to be delivered to the complainants or their solicitor upon his written order—also all interest actually received by the defendants upon the funds, and that each party pay their own costs.

From the foregoing statement of facts, it is apparent that the object of the General Assembly has been, not so much to establish any right or title of their own to the property in question, as to have conflicting claims fairly settled, and justice done to all parties concerned. In declining to submit the matter to arbitration, and in having the question decided by a competent legal tribunal, upon a full hearing of all the facts involved in the controversy, the Board have, in the opinion of the committee, met the views of the General Assembly, and fully discharged the trust reposed in them. The committee, without entering into the merits of the controversy, or expressing any opinion as to the probable result of an appeal from the decree of the Chancellor, to a higher tribunal, are of opinion that the views of the supreme judicature of the Church will be most strictly complied with, and the interests of the Church itself best promoted, by a submission to the decree of the Chancellor, and an early compliance with its directions. They therefore respectfully recommend that no appeal be taken from the decree of the Court of Chancery aforesaid, but that the library and other property in the possession of the Board be delivered over in pursuance of the decree to the complainants in the cause, or to their lawfully authorized agent.

April 28, A. D. 1838.

W. W. PHILLIPS,
HENRY W. GREEN.

The Trustees respectfully request the General Assembly to give them instructions in view of the above statement.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JOHN M'DOWELL, Secretary.

The whole number received during the year, was twenty-four. The highest number of students at any one time during the year, was forty-two. Mr. Thomas Hanson, a coloured man, belonging to the ministry of the Methodist Protestant Church, has attended also during the winter, though not as a matriculated student.

One of the students of the Seminary, Mr. Thomas B. Beer, closed his pilgrimage on earth, on the 31st day of March, much lamented both by the professors and his fellow students, leaving behind him the pleasing evidence that as it had been Christ for him to live, so it was gain for him to die.

The students have been examined semi-annually in presence of an Examining Committee appointed by the Board, who have reported that the examinations afforded evidence of the diligence and fidelity of the professors, and the industry and application of the students.

At the close of the Summer Session, the following young men completed their entire course of three years, and received the appropriate certificates, viz.

James Davis, Benjamin C. Critchlow, Lemuel G. Olmstead, James Shaw, Joseph Warren, William Hutchinson, Thomas P. Gordon, William M'Candlish, James M'Lain, William Hamilton.

The Board would report the following scholarship, endowed by Miss Nancy M'Neely, late a teacher in the Female Seminary at Steubenville, Ohio, by a bequest of two thousand dollars, which the Board have denominated the "M'Neely Scholarship." There are also three other Scholarships endowed, the "Middleswarth," "Patterson, and Smith Scholarships."

The Board are also able to report, that the Seminary edifice is now almost entirely completed; thus greatly improving not only its external appearance, but also its internal comfort and convenience, and that during the past year a number of rooms have been furnished by our congregations, in addition to those formerly occupied.

As it is believed that the provision in the "Plan of the Seminary," requiring three vacations during the year, might be altered with much advantage to the institution, the Board would respectfully submit to the General Assembly the following resolution, adopted by the Board at a recent meeting, viz.

Resolved, That the General Assembly be requested, at their next meeting, so to alter Chapter II., Section 7, Sub-section 10, of the Plan of the Western Theological Seminary at Alleghenytown, that it shall read as follows: "There shall be two vacations in the Seminary every year: the spring vacation to continue two months, and the fall vacation six weeks. The vacations to commence at such times as the Board of Directors shall deem most expedient."

As it is often found very difficult to obtain a quorum of the Board for the transaction of business, the Board would respectfully submit the following resolution on this subject, viz.

Resolved, That the General Assembly be requested to have Chapter II., Section 3, Subsection 1, of the Plan of the Western Theological Seminary at Alleghenytown, so altered as to make seven members instead of eleven, sufficient to constitute a quorum.

The Board request for the payment of professors' salaries, and the different expenses of the Seminary, the sum of $5000.

The term of service of the following persons, expires during the present sessions of the Assembly, viz.
